

Cyber

Our dedicated team of specialists takes an expertise-based approach to cyber risks. Our focus is on client cyber maturity which means we can support international business through the London Market. We deliver fast, flexible and sustainable solutions.

What makes us different?

Our offer is built on three key pillars; our global reach, financial strength and capacity.

These pillars underpin our ability to take a fresh view of risks in the cyber market. Our teams are empowered to seek innovative answers to cyber threats and are committed to focusing on technology and data-driven opportunities.

In a dynamic risk environment, we support client needs by leveraging the power of our global distribution network to deliver the right response and specialism required.

We believe in a client-centric service which is fair and transparent for all to ensure we can offer sustainable insurance cover. We are committed to developing long-term relationships which can evolve to meet the changing risks of the cyber world.

Our extensive claims handling know-how and many years of best practice claims settlement experience means companies can rely on us to resolve claims professionally, swiftly and with discretion.

Product Features

Our cyber solutions are both flexible and designed to integrate and add to broader client risk programmes:

- The ability to handle standalone Open Market Risks
- An appetite to provide innovative solutions driven by specialist underwriting
- The strength and capacity to cover high quality open market, Primary and Excess layer risks sustainably
- Our broad reach and network mean policies can be written on a global admitted basis because of our reach and through our own network
- Full Delegated Underwriting Authority
- Collaboration beyond pure capacity providers – including product development and portfolio management

Affirmative cyber coverage can open doors to other specialty lines adding wider client value and strengthening relationships. Our experience developing market-leading creative solutions can complement and develop your proposition. We can also help develop a robust claims infrastructure to enhance your product offering.

Who do we cover?

We work across many industry sectors and help firms of all sizes to prepare for the cyber risks they face today in readiness for the changes tomorrow.

Our flexible, open-minded offering is designed to help everyone from small businesses right through to large organisations building solutions to meet specific needs.

We are keen to work with brokers who share our maturity and expertise-led approach. We collaborate to consider harder-to-place risks where the agent has a clear differentiator such as; distribution channels, niche products and underwriting competencies.

What happens next?

We aim to offer solutions for your full range of insurance needs. Please contact us with any enquiry and we will assess it thoroughly, fairly and do our very best to accommodate your requirements.
